President's Message

Jai Jinendra, Vannakam, Jai Sri Krishna,

It gives me immense pleasure to present to you the comprehensive directory of various social services rendered by Rajasthani community in the state of Tamilnadu.

In the year 1967 our association was established with the noble aim of fostering harmony, promote cordiality, understanding and goodwill across all section of the society. It serves as the unified voice of Rajasthanis in Tamilnadu.

in the year 1995 we introduced the prestigious 'Rajasthan Ratna', 'Rajasthan Shree' and in 2009 'Yuva' awards to honour the remarkable contributions of the Rajasthanis residing in Tamilnadu. This year the 'Rajasthani-Tamil Seva' awards has been instituted to recognize the exemplary services rendered by local Non-Rajasthani individuals & organisations based in Tamilnadu.

“Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on earth” Muhammad Ali. The Rajasthani community has contributed significantly to Tamilnadu not only through business and trade rooted in honesty and sincerity but also by embodying the principles of 'Live and Let Live'.

The migration of Rajasthanis to Tamilnadu dates back to nearly 200 years. It fills me with pride to see the dedication of Rajat Data Collection team to compile detailed information on various educational institutions, medical and health care societies, and social and community service organizations and publish them in a book. Details of all the service institutions in this directory is a testament to their unwavering commitment and hard work.

Further more, our Association takes immense pride in encouraging and recognizing young talent. Every year we felicitate meritorious students of community who have excelled in academics and other fields. We provide scholarship to all deserving students.

This directory is not merely a record of the past- it is a beacon for the future, inspiring generation to come. I am confident, this book will serve as a valuable reference showcasing the indelible mark Rajasthanis have left on Tamilnadu's social fabric.

My best wishes in true spirit.

Mohan Goenka
Chairman - Directory

Working To-gether

The people of the Rajasthani community settled in Tamil Nadu established the Rajasthani Association Tamil Nadu in the year 1967 and engaged in doing social and welfare services, extending help to weaker sections of society, regardless of religion, language, community, caste, color, and creed.

The association is doing yeoman service and numerous social activities, welfare events, cultural functions, awareness programs, and scholarship distribution.

I wish the association to grow to greater heights in the future.

May the local bodies, the needy people of Tamil Nadu, and the Rajasthani community work together and continue the good work undertaken by the association, particularly in providing relief to people affected by natural calamities, droughts, and tsunamis, etc.

My everlasting blessings and good well-wishes are always there.

With good luck.

The Services' Directory : A work in progress...

This directory is not just a book, it is a tribute to a century of hard work, success and service by Rajasthanis in Tamil Nadu & Puducherry. While online platforms are common today, a printed directory is special. It keeps our history alive, fills us with pride and inspires future generations.

A Journey of Dedication

For six months, we worked hard to collect information, pictures, and stories of Rajasthani institutions across both states. We could not include everything, but instead of stopping, we decided to move forward. This directory is a thank you to everyone who supported us and believed in this project.

A Legacy of Service for All

The institutions featured in this directory are dedicated to serving people from all background without any barriers of caste, creed, religion or section of the society. Their mission is simple : to help those in need, whether in education, healthcare, or social welfare. This directory honors their commitment to selfless service and inclusivity.

A Work in Progress

Despite our best efforts, due to time constraints and challenges in verifying certain details, some institutions and services could not be included in this edition. However, this is just the beginning. Their details will be part of future editions, ensuring a more comprehensive record over time.

Why This Directory Matters

Preserves history : Records the journey of Rajasthanis in Tamil Nadu & Puducherry.

Recognizes contributions : Honors individuals, institutions, and organizations.

Provides knowledge : Helps in research, education, and community work.

Inspires service : Highlights efforts in social welfare, education, healthcare, and culture.

A Beginning, Not an End

This is not the final version; it is just the beginning. There are many more stories to tell. Every great journey starts with a small step, and this is ours.

Join Us in This Legacy

This directory is not just about the past; it is about inspiring the future. It reminds us of the values, strength, and dedication of our community.

Support us, share your thoughts, and help us make it even better in the years to come!

Ajay Nahata & Vinod Bhutoria (with gratitude to all who supported this initiative)

Rajasthanis in Tamilnadu : The Journey continues...

From the golden sands of Thar Desert of Rajasthan to the serene shores of Tamil Nadu, this is not just a geographical journey but a story of hearts and cultures coming together.

Nearly 200 years ago, visionaries like Agurchand Manmal Jain, Kaluram Jain, and Asha Singh Mohta set foot on this sacred land of Tiruvalluvar, carrying with them not just hope, but a spirit of compassion.

What began as a journey of hope, with bullock carts carrying their dreams has now touched the skies. This is not just a tale of struggle; it is an epic of dreams turning into reality.

A Bridge of Cultures

Tamil Nadu embraced communities like Jain, Maheshwari, Agarwal, Brahmin, Sirvi, Rajput, Jat, Choudhary, Mali, Ghanchi and many others. It didn't just give them a home, it also gave them a sense of belonging that strengthened their roots.

The journey was tough, but their faith was stronger. Struggles did not break them; instead, they made them stronger. Today, the bridge between these two cultures connects hearts, creating an unbreakable bond.

They brought with them not just their belongings but also their language, beliefs, and rich traditions. Rajasthan's cultural heritage blended beautifully with Tamil Nadu's culture, creating a vibrant fusion that enriched both.

Festivals like Pongal, Diwali, Holi, and Navratri are no longer just celebrations; they have become bridges of unity, symbolizing the love and togetherness that have tied these communities for generations.

Education – Empowering Generations

The Rajasthani community has made remarkable contributions to education. Over 100 schools and 25 colleges run by the community help nearly 2 lakh students chase their dreams every year.

Some of the leading institutions include A.M. Jain College, D.G. Vaishnav College, and Mahavir Rajasthani International School; not just buildings, but temples of learning and hope.

The R.Y.A. Book Bank has supported over 1 lakh students, while scholarships worth rupees 20 crore annually help 20,000 underprivileged students. This is not just education, it is a gift of self-respect and independence.

The Rajasthanis have contributed for building fund of various institutions like Vivekananda Educational Society and Bhartiya Vidya Mandir etc.

Healthcare – Serving the Needy

Compassion runs deep in the Rajasthani community's efforts in healthcare.

Continues...

Shri Jain Medical Relief Society and R.Y.A. Cosmo Foundation Hospital serve over 2 lakh patients every year, offering not just treatment but dignity and support.

Cancer screening, Eye and medical camps bring hope and relief to remote areas where life is often a struggle. This is more than just healthcare, it is humanity in action.

Rajasthanis have contributed for building institutions viz. Cancer Institute, Sankara Nethralaya, Child Trust Hospitals and Voluntary Health Services (VHS) Hospital etc.

Economic Contributions – Building Prosperity

Rajasthanis entrepreneurs, known as Marwaris, are not just financiers but a pillar of support for Tamil Nadu's needy. Whenever someone knocked on their door for help, they quietly extended a helping hand, without seeking recognition.

Their businesses go beyond profits. They stand for compassion and ethics. From pawn shops, small businesses to large industries, they have provided jobs to over 5 lakh people. This is a story of hard work and humanity that binds Tamil Nadu and Rajasthan together.

Social Welfare – Extending a Helping Hand

In times of crisis, the Rajasthanis community has always stood by Tamil Nadu like a family. The community's food banks provide over 10 lakh meals every year, and their cloth banks ensure thousands have clothing and school uniforms.

Whether it was the 2004 tsunami, the devastating 2015 floods, or the COVID-19 pandemic, their compassion and generosity deeply touched Tamil hearts. This is not just charity - it is a bridge between souls.

Honoring Tamil Nadu's Spirit : Rajasthan-Tamil Seva Awards

As a new chapter unfolds, the Rajasthanis community bows in gratitude to the heroes of Tamil Nadu who have uplifted society and brought positive change.

This is a humble tribute to the spirit of Tamil Nadu 'Yadum Oore, Yavarum Kelir', meaning 'Every place is our home, and everyone is our own.'

The Journey Continues

This is not just a story of migrants; it is a saga of courage, dedication, struggle, and kindness.

It is a bond that unites two cultures, two hearts, and two states.

The journey is far from over. The most beautiful chapters are yet to be written.

The shared dreams, struggles, and successes of Tamil Nadu and Rajasthan will only grow stronger in the years to come.

This is just the beginning... with gratitude, respect, and hope for a brighter future.
